HE LIGHTS HIS PIPE ONCE MORE

Some fifty years ago the English ship Argos was wrecked on a low-lying key or sand Island of the Bahama group. Only one man, a sailor, was thrown safely on the beach by the waves. In his pocket was a tin tobacco-box, a pine, and a flint and steel. Wringing the water from his clothes, he seated himself, lighted his pipe, and with true British phlegm proceeded to consider his situation. The moral of which is that when on Englishman, having the means, refuses to smoke, he is in very bad form

For example, here is a man who says, "I always enjoyed my pipe, but now I couldn't take a whiff." To be sure, there was a reason, and he puts it in this way. "Up to Michaelmas, 1887," he says, "I was a strong, healthy man. About this time I began to feel bad at my stomach and had no relish for food. I had a bad taste in the mouth, and after eating I would retch and vemit until the water cozed out of my eyes; and so bad was this that my wife had to hold my head. My eyes turned yellow, and I felt low, weak, and nervous Sometimes I would break out into a sweat and then go cold and I would turn and turn in bed all night long, and my wife and I often sat up the best part of the night rather than go to hung upon me. Friends who came to see me Subscrized Capital, £ 500,000. told one another I could not get better, and even my wite said I would do no more work in

CHAN KIT SHAN, Esp. bury, with the same result. The dectors sounded my lungs, but found nothing wrong, and said all my ailments were brought on by bad digestion. "I now got weaker and weaker and had given up all hopes of recovery, when in the spring of John Bottsky, Esq., Messra John Battery the vicerage at Otten Belchamp heard of my condition. She called at Mr. Goody's, the medicine dealer, and told him to supply me with some Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup and she would pay for it. Very reluctantly I took the medicine, for I had tried so many things without obtaining any henefit. However, my wife pressed. me so hard that at last I began to take the Syrup After a few doses I said to my wife, 'I think I feel better for this medicine, and from that time I commenced to improve.
